

invasion of exotic plants. The floodplain is unprotected, and all is in private ownership. The site is worthy of protection, especially in the lower portions, which contain pocosin vegetation along the floodplain margins and sandhills vegetation just off the floodplain (at the Hannah Creek Sandhill site).

NATURAL COMMUNITIES: Cypress-Gum Swamp, Blackwater subtype

REFERENCES:

LeGrand, H.E., Jr. 2001. Site survey report: Hannah Creek Swamp. N.C. Natural Heritage Program, DPR, DENR, Raleigh.